Any supplementary costs arising from the need to meet the delivery deadline by way of expedited delivery shall be borne by the Supplier.

Such certificates must state the Purchase Order number together with any item numbers.
- 6.2 If the Goods and/or Services do not comply with the Contract, the Customer shall within a reasonable time give notice of rejection to the Supplier.
- Without prejudice to any of its other rights, the Customer may at its discretion require the Supplier to comply with the Contract by expeditiously replacing or repairing as appropriate any rejected Goods and rectifying or remedying any rejected Services. The rejected Goods shall be returned to the Supplier at its own risk and expense. All Services found to be defective, non-conforming or failing to meet any of the Supplier's representations and warranties shall be completely re-performed at the Supplier's cost and expense. In urgent cases or if the Supplier is in default with its obligation to repair defects, the Customer shall be entitled at the Supplier's cost and expense to take the necessary steps to repair such defects itself or to entrust a third party to do so. The Customer will inform the Supplier before such steps are taken. If prior notification is not possible, steps necessary to avert damage may in urgent cases be taken without any notification and in these cases, the Customer shall notify the Supplier as soon as possible afterwards. The Supplier's representations and warranty obligations remain unaffected, except where defects are attributable to the steps taken by the Customer or a third party.
- 6.3 Unless otherwise specified or approved by the Customer, the Supplier shall remove the Customer's name and any of the Customer's trademarks, trade names, insignia, part numbers, symbols or decorative designs from all Goods rejected or returned by the Customer or not sold or delivered to the Customer.
- 6.4 Any reference to "Supplier" in this section includes any subcontractor of the Supplier permitted under Section 10. Where the Supplier repairs or replaces Goods or provides remedial Services under these sections, these Conditions shall apply to the repaired or replaced Goods or the remedial or remedied Services.
- 6.5 The Customer reserves the right (but shall not be obliged) to inspect or test the Goods or the Services at any stage before delivery and the Supplier shall give rights of access to premises and such facilities as the Customer may reasonably require for such inspection.
- 6.6 Notwithstanding whether any acceptance, testing and inspection is done by the Customer or end user, no such act or omission by the Customer or end user shall discharge the duty and obligation of the Supplier to carry out its obligation in accordance with the Contract.

7. Rights of Use

- 7.1 The Supplier hereby grants the Customer the following non-exclusive, transferable, worldwide and perpetual rights:
- 7.1.1 to use the Goods and Services including related documentation, to integrate them into other products and to distribute them worldwide;
 - 7.1.2 to use or allow others to use Software in connection with the installation, launch, testing and operation of the Software;
 - 7.1.3 to sublicense the right of use under Section 7.1.2 above to its Related Corporation, other distributors and end customers;
 - 7.1.4 to license to its Related Corporations and other distributors the right to sublicense the right of use under Section 7.1.2 above to end customers;
 - 7.1.5 to use the Software for integration into other products and to copy the Software, or to allow its Related Corporations or other distributors to use and copy the Software;
 - 7.1.6 to distribute, sell, hire out, lease, make ready for download or make publicly available the Software, e.g. in the context of Application Service Providing or in other contexts, and to copy the Software to the extent required, provided always that the number of licenses being used at any one time does not exceed the number of licenses purchased;
 - 7.1.7 to sublicense the right of use under Section 7.1.6 above to its Related Corporations and other distributors.
- 7.2 In addition to the rights granted in Section 7.1 above, the Customer, its Related Corporations and other distributors are authorized to allow end customers to transfer Software licenses.
- 7.3 All sublicenses granted by the Customer must contain appropriate protection for the intellectual property rights of the Supplier in the Software. All sublicenses must contain any contractual provisions used by the Customer to protect its own intellectual property rights.
- 7.4 The Supplier shall inform the Customer - at the latest at the time the Purchase Order is confirmed - whether the Goods and Services to be delivered contain "Open Source Component".
In the context of this provision "Open Source Component" means any software, hardware or other information that is provided royalty-free by the respective licensor to any user on the basis of a license or another agreement with the right to modify and/or to distribute. By means of example and without limitation, Open License Terms include the following licenses: the GNU General Public License (GPL), the GNU Lesser GPL (LGPL), the BSD License, the Apache License or the MIT License. Should the Goods and Services delivered by the Supplier contain Open Source Component, the Supplier shall comply with all applicable open source license terms and shall grant all those rights to the Customer and provide all information which the Customer needs in order to comply with the applicable license terms. In particular, the Supplier must deliver to the Customer at the latest at the time the Purchase Order is confirmed the following:
- The complete source code of the relevant Open Source Component, including scripts and information regarding its generating environment insofar as the applicable open source conditions require this;
 - A schedule of all open source components used, indicating the relevant license, its version and including a copy of the complete text of such license and including a reference to copyright and/or authorship. Such schedule shall be of an understandable structure and contain a table of contents;
 - A written declaration that through the intended use of the Open Source Component neither the Goods of the Supplier nor the Goods of the Customer will be subject to a "Copyleft Effect". In the context of this provision, "Copyleft Effect" means that the provisions of the open source license require that certain of the Supplier's Goods, as well as any Goods derived from these, may only be distributed further in accordance with the terms of the open source license e.g. only if the source code is disclosed. In the event that any open source licenses used by the Supplier are subject to a "Copyleft Effect" as defined above, then the Customer shall be entitled to cancel the Purchase Order within two (2) weeks of receipt of such information.
- Should the Supplier not indicate until after receipt of the Purchase Order that its Goods and Services contain Open Source Component, then the Customer is entitled to cancel the Purchase Order within 14 days of receipt of this information and provision of all the information contained in the above paragraph.
- 7.5 If the Goods and/or Services include Software, the Supplier acknowledges that the Customer may be on-selling the same to its customers or end users and represents and warrants that it has good title to license the Software.
- 7.6 The Supplier permits the Customer to market and resell the Software and any accompanying hardware either alone or as part of a package.

- 7.7 The Supplier shall provide the Customer with such technical advice, assistance, data and documentation, including source code where necessary, to enable the Customer to maintain the Software if it so wishes.

8. Warranty & Representation

- 8.1 Without prejudice to the Customer's rights under the Contract and at law, the Supplier represents and warrants the Goods and/or Services against defects for the following period:-
- (a) for Goods:
 - the longer of either (i) the Supplier's normal warranty period; or (ii) a period of three (3) years (or as otherwise stated in the Contract);
 - (b) for Services:
 - the longer of either (i) the Supplier's normal warranty period; or (ii) a period of one (1) year (or as otherwise stated in the Contract).
- 8.2 (a) Subject to Section 8.2(b), the warranty period begins to run from the date of the transfer of risk (see Section 5.1).
(b) Upon delivery to locations where the Customer is operating outside its premises, the warranty period begins with the acceptance by the end customer, in no case later than one year after transfer of risk.
(c) In the case of defective Goods, this period shall be calculated from the date of receipt by the Customer of the delivery of the defective Goods repaired or replaced under Sections 6 and 8 herein.
- 8.3 The warranty period for deficiencies in title is five years, insofar as no statutory provisions provide longer periods.
- 8.4 If deficiencies are identified before or during the transfer of risk or during the warranty period provided for in Section 8.1 or 8.3, the Supplier must at its own expense and at the discretion of the Customer either repair the deficiency or provide reperformance of Services or replacement of Goods (=rectification). This provision also applies to deliveries subject to inspection by sample tests. The discretion of the Customer shall be exercised fairly and reasonably.
- 8.5 Should the Supplier fail to rectify (i. e. repair or replacement) any deficiency within a reasonable time period set by the Customer, the Customer is entitled to:
- (a) cancel the Contract in whole or in part without being subject to any liability for damages; or
 - (b) demand a reduction in price; or
 - (c) undertake itself any repair at the expense and risks of the Supplier or re-performance of Services or replacement of Goods or arrange for such to be done; and
 - (d) claim damages in lieu of performance.
- 8.6 Any rectification may take place without a further deadline at the expense of the Supplier if delivery is effected after the original deadline.
- 8.7 The same shall apply if the Customer has a strong particular interest in immediate rectification in order to avoid any liability of its own for delay or for other reasons of urgency and it is not unreasonable for the Customer to request the Supplier to rectify the deficiency within a reasonable time period.
- 8.8 Additional or other statutory rights are not affected hereby.
- 8.9 If the Supplier provides subsequent performance or repairs, the warranty periods set out in Sections 8.1 and 8.3 shall begin to run once again.
- 8.10 Notwithstanding the transfer of risk regarding delivery, the Supplier shall bear all the costs (including but not limited to return costs, costs of transport) and risk related to the rectification.
- 8.11 The Supplier represents and warrants that it has all necessary permits and licenses to allow it to sell the Goods and/or Services to the Customer, and that it has complied with all relevant laws, rules and regulations affecting its obligations and the performance of the Contract.
- 8.12 The Supplier represents and warrants that all Goods are new and do not contain any used or reconditioned parts or materials unless otherwise specified or approved by the Customer.
- 8.13 Breach of any of the representations and warranties in this Section 8 shall, without prejudice to any other rights of the Customer, entitle the Customer to terminate the Contract and claim damages, loss, costs and expenses from the Supplier (including, without limitation, legal costs on an indemnity basis).
- 8.14 Sections 8 and 19 shall include and apply to any replacement, repaired, substituted or remedial Goods and/or Services provided by the Supplier.

- 9.1 The Supplier is obliged to examine components such as, e.g., raw material, provided by the Customer or provided by Supplier's suppliers, manufacturers or other third parties at the time of receipt of such components as to whether these components show any defects. In case any defects are discovered in the course of such inspections, the Supplier shall immediately inform its suppliers or – in the case the components are provided by the Customer, inform the Customer.
- 9.2 It is essential that the Goods and/or Services are delivered free of any third party rights, liens, encumbrances or infringements. Thus the Supplier is under a duty to verify title and inform the Customer of any possible conflicting industrial and intellectual property rights. Any breach of such duty is subject to the normal statutory limitation period.

10. Subcontracting/Assignment

The Supplier shall not, either in whole or in part, subcontract or assign any rights, duties or obligations under the Contract, or any claims for any debt owed by the Customer to the Supplier under the Contract unless the Customer gives its prior written consent, such consent to be signed by its authorized representatives, to such assignment or subcontract. If the Customer gives its written consent, the Supplier is not relieved of any of its obligations under the Contract. The Customer may attach conditions to the giving of its consent. Any attempted delegation, assignment or subcontracting without the written consent of the Customer shall be void. Further, the Customer shall be entitled to cancel the Contract in whole or in part and claim damages.

11. Tools, Patterns, Samples, Confidentiality etc.

- 11.1 All Issued Material shall be and remain the property of the Customer (even if charged for) and is to be stored, labeled as property of the Customer and administered separately at no cost to the Customer. Their use is limited to the orders of the Customer only. The Supplier shall supply replacements in the event of reduction of value or loss, for which Supplier is responsible, even in the event of negligence. On completion of its obligations under the Contract or as otherwise directed by the Customer, the Supplier shall return the Issued Material to the Customer in good order and condition.
- 11.2 Any Issued Material as well as any materials derived there from, shall not be made available to any third party nor used for any other purpose than those contractually agreed except with the prior written consent of the Customer. Such materials shall be protected by the Supplier against unauthorized access or use. Subject to any further rights the Customer may demand that such materials be returned if the Supplier breaches these duties.
- 11.3 The Supplier shall not make available to any third party any information obtained from the Customer if such information is not already general knowledge or has not been lawfully obtained by the Supplier. Insofar as the Customer agrees to any subcontracting to a third party, such third party shall agree to such terms in writing.
- 11.4 The Supplier shall treat as confidential the knowledge and findings, the documents (including the Contract), terms of reference, business processes and any other information and/or materials that the Supplier receives from the Customer. Issued Material is also confidential. Use of any such information and Issued Material is permitted solely for the purpose of carrying out the Contract. The Supplier shall not, without the prior written consent of the Customer, copy or disclose such confidential information to anyone other than those employees or agents of the Supplier on a need-to-know basis and only if these parties are bound to the Customer by substantially similar confidentiality provisions.
- 11.5 The Supplier shall not without the Customer's written consent advertise or otherwise make known that the Supplier supplies or has supplied Goods or Services to the Customer.
- 11.6 The confidentiality obligations in this Section 11 shall survive the termination or expiration of the Contract.
- 11.7 The Supplier shall indemnify and compensate the Customer and all its assigns, subcontractors and customers from and against any claims, liabilities, actions, demands, damages, loss and costs and expenses (including without limitation, legal costs on an indemnity basis) suffered as a result of a breach of this Section 11 and other Conditions herein.

12. Inability to Pay/Insolvency of the Supplier

Should the Supplier cease to make payments, or if an interim insolvency administrator is appointed or if insolvency proceedings are applied for or commenced in relation to the assets of the Supplier, the Customer may terminate the Contract and/or any Purchase Orders issued thereunder in part or in whole. Should either allegations of the Supplier's non-compliance with the above Sections 13.1 and 13.2 or other claims which threaten to endanger the Customer's reputation become public, e.g. by way of media coverage, the Supplier shall provide a written statement, immediately upon the Customer's request, concerning the Supplier's non-compliance or the allegations made.
- 13.4 In addition to other rights and remedies the Customer may have, in the event of the Supplier's material or repeated failure to comply with the above Sections 13.1 and 13.2, after providing the Supplier reasonable notice and a reasonable opportunity to remedy, the Customer may terminate the Contract and/or any Purchase Order issued hereunder without any liability whatsoever.
